

COUNSELING AT HOPE

Our counseling philosophy is based on two main ideas: God did not intend for you to do life alone and unless you have a place to be ruthlessly honest about yourself, you are not as healthy and whole as you can be.

If you would like to start the process of living out those main ideas (and we think you should), here are some ways in which we would like to be a part of that journey with you.

1. Email or call your campus pastor to set up a time to talk. Our care pastors are not professional counselors but they can listen, pray, and give you some godly guidance. They can also lead you to some great resources and next steps.
 - Frisco East
 - Larry Evans - Care Pastor (levans@hopefellowship.net)
 - Frisco West
 - Aaron Frizzelle (afrizzelle@hopefellowship.net)
 - McKinney
 - Mike Martin (mmartin@hopefellowship.net)
 2. We also have classes like Divorce Care and Grief Recovery that are available throughout the year as well as options for men, women and couples.
Check out www.hopefellowship.net/classes to access a list of all our classes and Bible studies.
 3. We have developed relationships with some wonderful Christian therapists in the area. There is a cost involved on your part, but these are some folks that we trust that will give you great guidance and godly principles. Feel free to contact them to check on price and availability. They are listed in alphabetical order.

corey@simplemarriage.net

Simple Marriage was founded by Dr. Allan in 2002 and seeks to assist couples and individuals in living fully alive. There are many things that get in the way of the life and marriage we want to live. By discovering the natural processes of relationships, you can begin to harness the energy already there in order to have the marriage you may not have thought possible.

Simple Marriage also offers marriage intensives (typically occurs later in the week or weekends) as an alternative to weekly sessions for those in need of a more time-effective and intensive therapy approach. There is also a focus on working with men and parenting issues. Check out the website for other helpful resources and access to the Simple Marriage weekly podcast.

Lauren is a Licensed Professional Counselor and serves people through a biblical counseling relationship. She integrates Biblical truth with cognitive behavioral techniques and exercises. She is equipped to work with adolescents, individuals, couples, and families. Her areas of specialty include anxiety, OCD, depression, disordered eating, communication, identity, grief, codependency, abandonment and attachment issues, parenting, marital and premarital counseling. She is a certified Prepare/Enrich facilitator.

Philippians 3:10-14 is the heartbeat of her counseling approach because it speaks to our identity as it proclaims who Christ is and who we are in Him. The passage points to the mighty power of God who abundantly overflows with all of the resources we need for change in our lives. We are all in need of a process to experience healing from our past wounds, to seek freedom from our chains, and to become more like Him in our thoughts, words and actions. She is honored to get to walk alongside people as they dive into what is difficult and work to achieve their desired goals.
